Reading Comprehension Passages: Level C Reading Comprehension Passages with Text Evidence Questions: Reading Comprehension Kindergarten: This product is designed to help kids who are reading at Guided Reading Level C become skilled at reading simple passages and answering text-based reading comprehension questions. As students find the evidence that supports their answers, they participate in their very first close reading lessons. This pack is ideal for morning work once students are familiar with the format. (Upon request, an abridged version of this product is now also listed in Spanish. If you'd like to take a look, please click here.) This packet includes 30 reading comprehension passages with three reading comprehension exercises per passage. Each passage is presented twice. In the first set, the passages are provided in a standard format. I have students circle the correct answer and also write it on the line. In the second set, a color-coded crayon is provided in each answer box. Students use that color to underline the evidence in the text that supports their answer & also answer in a standard format. Supports the following Reading comprehension kindergarten and First Grade standards: CCSS ELA-Literacy.RL.1.1 - Ask and answer questions about key details in a text. CCSS ELA-Literacy.RL.K.1 -With prompting and support, ask and answer questions about key details in a text. If multiple choice questions are new to your kids, I recommend putting simple questions in a multiple choice format during calendar time or other daily routines. I like to give each student a strip of cardstock with A, B and C written on it and have them practice answering multiple choice questions by clipping a clothespin on the correct answer. This is an easy, fun way for kids to develop confidence answering multiple choice questions. Once kids are comfortable with the multiple choice format, I like to discuss the first few passages with groups and demonstrate how to answer the simple text-based multiple choice questions. Some of the passages are similar to each other so you can use one passage to teach and the other to check each student's understanding during independent work. I am finding that, with guided practice, reading comprehension for kindergarten, kids quickly develop the skills they need to be successful reading these passages and independently answering the multiple choice questions. These passages are based on common sight words. I also have kids find and highlight selected sight words. Supports the following

Differentiated Reading for Comprehension is designed to provide high-interest, nonfiction reading success for all readers. This 64-page book focuses on third grade reading skills defined by the Common Core State Standards. Each of 15 stories is presented separately for the below-level, on-level, and advanced students, followed by a series of comprehension questions. Grade three covers such standards as how key details support the main idea, understanding the relationships and connections between parts of a text, and developing an understanding point of view. --This series allows teachers to present the same content to below-level, on-level, and advanced students with leveled nonfiction stories. It includes multiple-choice, fill-in-the-blank, and true/false questions; short-answer writing practice; and comprehension questions. Students stay interested, build confidence, and discover that reading can be fun! The reading passages are separated into sections with titles such as Extreme Places, Amazing People, Wild Animals, Strange and Unexplained, Fascinating Machines, and Amazing Kids.

According to the Common Core State Standards, students should be able to read closely to determine what a text says explicitly, make logical references from it, and cite specific textual evidence to support conclusions drawn from the text. Each of the 40 short, fiction and nonfiction passages in this collection includes companion comprehension questions that target these critical reading skills and give students the repeated practice they need to build mastery in identifying main idea and details, using context clues, distinguishing between fact and opinion, 100% Aligned with STAAR Standards for Reading Comprehension! These books are designed to prepare your students for the Reading portion of the State of Texas Assessment of Academic Readiness (STAAR). Many states measure achievement in reading by assessing student progress on benchmark objectives identified in their state standards. The state of Texas is one of those states. This book provides teachers with a variety of reading passages and questions that help assess student knowledge of reading standards tested on the STAAR. This practice book provides reading passages that consist of narrative text, expository text, and mixed passages. Expository passages include informative, biographical, autobiographical, and how-to selections. Mixed passages put two different kinds of writing together in one selection. Questions follow each passage. Each question is designed to assess a specific STAAR standard. Teacher Editions contain an answer key which tells you the type of passage, higher level vocabulary found in each passage, each standard tested along with its correct answer, and a list of possible extension activities. Teacher Editions also include a bibliography and a reading benchmark standards matrix showing which passage assesses which standards. Each of these workbooks provides hours of on-grade-level reading comprehension practice. Passages range in readability to allow for differentiated instruction. The grades 3-8 Reading Comprehension titles are great test preparation tools. These books are also great for home schooling!
